1. The mission of the Saxon Bereitschaften is to guard the perimeter of the western sectors of Berlin only, not the entire circumference. The border of the Soviet sector is guarded by the Schutzpolizei. The Bereitschaften are charged, however, with checking trains leaving Berlin towards the East.
2. Polizeikommandeur Wolf's headquarters is in Falkensee. The telephone number is 2200. The Bereitschaften are divided into five Kommandos located at Hennigsdorf, Falkensee, Teltow, Mahlow, and a fifth which source could not recall.
3. The Saxon Bereitschaften are composed of 1,500 men, young, and inexperienced in police work.
4. Polizeikommandeur Wolf is assisted in his duties by one Uhle (fnu), his chief of staff. The latter was formerly in the German Navy. Source claims that he is not a very intelligent man.
